CYPRUS

*Cyprus: The Cypriot Foreign Minister has delayed his scheduled trip to Moscow but preliminary Soviet-Cypriot negotiations may be underway in Nicosia.

Foreign Minister Kyprianou, originally slated to depart for the USSR on 21 August, is now expected to arrive in Athens for new conversations with Greek officials today.

Some Greek Cypriot leaders are cautioning against quick acceptance of enosis -- union with Greece -- as a final solution for the Cyprus dispute. The President of the House of Representatives, in a press interview yesterday, called for enosis only after the Cypriots have exercised their right of self-determination. He termed unacceptable any plan for immediate union with Greece which would be followed by the granting of a base on Cyprus to Turkey or NATO.

[Makarios also reportedly has stated that the Greek Cypriots now may insist on conditions -- namely that Greece would grant no foreign bases on Cypriot soil -- before accepting enosis.]

In New York, UN officials have expressed concern over a possible new crisis which could develop next week-end. The Turkish Government has expressed the intention of rotating members of its 650-man army contingent stationed on Cyprus at that time. Makarios, thus far, has refused Turkish requests for permission to carry out the operation.
